11) Possibly Cleber Massengil Wright, born in 1804 in Lincoln County, Kentucky, and

a. 1845 John P. Wright Of Obion County, Tennessee, His Wife Rebecca (Possibly Brown) Wright, And His Descendants

1845 John P. Wright of Obion County, Tennessee, was a son of Jesse Wright and Doshea (Peyton) Wright. (1767 Francis[1], 1807 Isaac[2], Jesse[3])

No primary source has yet been found for the middle name of John P. Wright. Secondary sources set forth below have stated that his middle name was Phillip. In his WorldConnect Posting dated July 26, 2006, Wilburn Dennis Wright stated that the middle name of John P. Wright was Peyton. Further research will be required to confirm the middle name of John P. Wright.

As set forth below, the given name of the wife of John P. Wright was Rebecca. No marriage record of John P. Wright and Rebecca ____ has as yet been found in Wayne County, Kentucky. Secondary sources set forth below have stated that the maiden of Rebecca was Brown.

In his WorldConnect Posting dated July 26, 2006, Wilburn Dennis Wright stated that the marriage record of Jack Wright and Rachel Milburn was dated on July 21, 1808, at Pulaski County, Kentucky. Kentucky Marriages, 1802-1850 also listed that marriage. Wilburn Dennis Wright stated that Jack was a nickname for John and that this was the marriage John P. Wright and Rebecca (____) Wright. However, there are several reasons to doubt this identification. First, the bride's given name is listed as Rachel and not Rebecca. Second, the 1810 Census for Wayne County, Kentucky, listed John Wright with three children aged 0 to 10 by 1810. This seems to be too many children if the marriage occurred in 1808. Third, Cleaber Massengil Wright has been identified as probably a son of John P. Wright and Rebecca (____) Wright and the 1850 Census for Obion County, Tennessee, listed his age as 44, indicating a date of birth 1806, which is two years before the marriage of Jack Wright and Rachel Milburn.

The result is that further research will be required to confirm the middle name of Rebecca (____) Wright.

The 1810 Census for Wayne County, Kentucky, listed one John Wright with the following household:

John Wright	1	16-26	1	16-26
	2	0-10	1	0-10

This record indicates that John P. Wright was born between 1784 and 1794.

The 1820 Census for Wayne County, Kentucky, listed one John Wright adjacent to Jesse Wright and with the following household:

Names of Heads of Families	Free White Males	Age	Free White Females	Age	Foreigners

The joinder of Rebecca Wright in this deed identifies the John Wright of Wayne County, Kentucky, Deed C/370 as John P. Wright. The reference to this land as patented by Jesse Wright indicates that John P. Wright was probably related to Jesse Wright.

Return to Tree:

Wayne County, Kentucky, Volume 6, "Wills & the Dick Family & Other Families" by June Bork stated that John Wright was a son of Jesse Wright and Doshea (Payton) Wright and was born in 1787 at Lincoln County, Kentucky.

The Wright Family by Gaynell Wright Hutton stated that John Wright was a son of Jesse Wright and Doshea (Payton) Wright, was born on June 18, 1787, citing a Family Bible owned by Anna Wright Fuller and copied by Ellis Wright.

In her emails dated April 29, 1998, and May 15, 1998, Mary Celine Scott enclosed a family chart which stated that John Wright was a son Jesse Wright and Doshua (Peyton) Wright and was born on June 18, 1787, in Lincoln County, Kentucky.

In his email dated September 13, 2000, Dennis Wright stated that John P. Wright was a son of Jesse Wright and Dorthea (Peyton) Wright, was born in June 1787 in Kentucky, married Rebecca Brown, and died in 1849 in Obion County, Tennessee, and that John P. Wright and Rebecca (Brown) Wright had the following child:

1) John R. Wright, born in 1829.

In his email dated October 18, 2004, Donald Wright stated that John Phillip Wright married Rebecca Brown, moved in 1827 from Wayne County, Kentucky, to near Glass, Obion County, Tennessee, by flat boat on the Cumberland and Ohio Rivers, died on May 13, 1845, in Obion County, Tennessee, and was buried in Obion County, Tennessee, and that John Phillip Wright and Rebecca (Brown) Wright had the following children:

1) Moses Wright,
2) Preston Wright,
3) Masserigie Wright,
4) Phillip Alexander Wright,
5) Steven Wright,
6) John Wright,
7) Sediny Wright,
8) Docia Wright,
9) Julia Wright,
10) Octavia Wright,

11) Betsy Wright,

12) Virginia Wright, and

13) Ruth Wright.

In his letter dated October 27, 2004, Donald Wright enclosed Family Group Sheets prepared by Betty Ann Wright Wells which stated that John P. Wright was born in 1781, married Rebecca Brown, died on May 13, 1845, in Obion County, Tennessee, and was buried at Old Mills' Place near Glass, Obion County, Tennessee, that Rebecca (Brown) Wright was born in 1785, died in 1853 in Lake County, Tennessee, and was buried at Old Mills' Place, Obion County, Tennessee, and that John P. Wright and Rebecca (Brown) Wright had the following children:

1) Cleaber Massengil Wright, born in June 1806,

2) Octavia (Wright) Simpson, born on June 9, 1809, in Kentucky,

3) Solomon Preston Wright, born on October 16, 1810, in Kentucky,

4) Moses Wright, born on September 6, 1812, in Kentucky,

5) Elizabeth (Wright) McWherter, born in 1814 in Kentucky,

6) Virginia (Wright) Darnell, born on May 7, 1816, in Wayne County, Kentucky,

10) John R. Wright, born in 1824,

11) Julia Ann (Wright) Pickard, born in 1826 in Kentucky,

12) Winnie Sidney (Wright) (Burden) Lippard, born on May 11, 1828, in Obion County, Tennessee, and

13) Steven Wright.

1845 John Phillip Wright of Obion County, Tennessee, had previously been identified as a son of 1840 Thomas Wright of Surry County, North Carolina, and Mary (Clancy) Wright. In his email dated August 24, 2004, Justin Glenn noted this identification had been set forth in accepted DAR Application #314501 of Durinda Wright Gordon and Application #731545 for Betty Ann Wright Wells. However, after their applications were accepted, both Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Wells had raised doubts about that identification. Justin Glenn further included the following from his draft book on the Washington and Wright descendants:

> "Unfortunately, there appears to be overwhelming evidence that John Phillip Wright of Obion Co., Tenn., is not John Wright son of Thomas Wright and his wife Mary Clanton. Most compelling is the information published in 1962 by Wright W. Frost in his book The Frosts and Related Families of Bedford County, Tennessee [p. 87]. Here he gives a detailed abstract of the surviving will of John Wright in Yadkin Co., N.C. [Will Bk. 1, p. 7, will dated Dec. 9, 1852]. This John ostensibly left no children of his own, for he distributes his property among his sister Amelia Davis, his niece Mary Foote, his nephew James Wright, and his brother-in-law Henry Foote [who was the executor of his will]. The names of these heirs make it clear that the John who left the will must be the son of Thomas and Mary [Clanton] Wright.
> In addition, as Nancy Wright Brennan points out:
> [1] John Wright [the son of Thomas Wright (1758-1840)] was named the executor of his father's will dated June 1, 1838, and by that time John P. Wright was already living in far off Obion Co., Tenn.
> [2] Frost and Ritchie state that according to a record in a Family Bible belonging to John's sister Mary [Wright] Foote, John Wright married a woman named Polly on Feb. 16, 1819. The only known marriage of John P[hilip] Wright was to Rebecca Brown in 1801.
> [3] None of the names of John P. Wright's children repeat the names of previous generations except "John."
> After much hesitation I have decided to publish in an appendix the extensive research which Mrs. Brennan generously shared with me, which I have expanded considerably with the help of subsequent correspondents, published sources, census records, internet postings, etc. My hope is that its publication here will be a stimulus to further research on the elusive John Wright in question. DNA testing, of course, offers another path to future research.
> John Philip Wright was b. in Surry Co., N.C., and m. [1801, in Ky.] Rebecca Brown [b. in N.C., 1783; d. 1853, in Lake Co., Tenn.] According to Brennan,
> In 1803 the family traveled over the Blue Ridge Mts. to Ashe Co., N.C., then over the Appalachian Mts. to Ky., following the Daniel Boone Trail. They settled in Wayne Co., Ky., on the Cumberland River. In 1827, John and his wife, Becky, loaded their family, stock and possessions on a flat boat and made a six weeks' trip, with five other families, down the Cumberland River to the Tenn. River and on to the Miss. River to Mills Points (now Hickman), Ky., and settled near Glass, Tenn.

He d. May 13, 1845, in Obion Co., Tenn., and is buried in Mt. Mariah Baptist Church Cem. near Glass, Tenn.)

In his letter dated October 27, 2004, Donald Wright enclosed a copy of "Simpson Hill Cemetery, Obion County", printed in A Page In Time, which provided as follows:

"Simpson Hill Cemetery Obion County

The first part of June we received a request from a reader asking us to do a story on Simpson Hill Cemetery on Obion County. This cemetery is near the Glass community, a short way off Sharps-Ferry Road.

We were met at the cemetery by Mr. Bill Foster. Mr. Foster had been there all morning weed eating and working on the cemetery. He has started his third year of work on this cemetery. The results of his efforts are visible. Simpson Hill Cemetery is the resting place of Mr. Foster's great grandfather and great grandmother along with other relatives. Our reader who requested this story, Mrs. Betty Wright Wells also has a number of relatives buried here including her great great grandparents and great grandparents. Mrs. Wells live in Antioch, Tennessee but she and her husband Marlin make numerous trips here during the year to help Mr. Foster with work on the cemetery. This has been an expensive and time-consuming task. Years of neglect are not easily undone. According to Mrs. Wells, it is believed that Samuel Simpson was the first to be buried in Simpson Hill Cemetery. His burial was in January 1862, one hundred forty-one years ago. Mr. Simpson was born August 10, 1805 in Kentucky and moved to Obion County shortly after he married Octavia Wright in November of 1826. The Wright family along with other Wayne County residents moved here at the same time. This is another story that we will pursue in a later issue. There is a rich history surrounding those buried in Simpson Hill Cemetery. A Page In Time is grateful to Mrs. Wells and Mr. Foster for unveiling this history for our readers. Mr. Foster and Mrs. Wells have provided us with some very old pictures related to this cemetery. The picture below was taken in 1909 and is the Woodmen of the World Dedication Ceremony for Mr. Joseph L. Wright. It was conducted at his burial site in Simpson Hill Cemetery.

The following picture, taken in 1913 shows the unveiling ceremony of the Woodmen of the World marker for Richard Alexander Wright who died June 16, 1913.

Simpson Hill Cemetery is also the burial site of two confederate soldiers. George P. Wright served in Co C7, Duckworth's Tennessee Cavalry. Joseph D. Wall enlisted in Co I, 33rd Tennessee Infantry, Union City, TN. Mr. Wall fought at Shiloh April 6 & 7, 1862. [Continued on page 14]"

In his letter dated October 27, 2004, Donald Wright also enclosed a copy of "Early Settlers Of The Glass Community", printed in A Page In Time, Obion County, which provided as follows:

"Early Settlers of the Glass Community Obion County
This Month: Phillip A. Wright

Last month we featured Simpson Hill Cemetery as requested by one of our subscribers, Mrs. Betty Wright Wells of Antioch, Tennessee. Mrs. Wells put us in touch with Mr. Bill Foster who has been cleaning on the cemetery for the past few years. In this article we stated that a wealth of history was related to this cemetery. We also promised future articles relating to Simpson Hill Cemetery. Mr. Foster and Mrs. Wells have provided us with numerous pictures and histories of these early pioneers of this community. This month A Page In Time is featuring Phillip A. Wright, not so much for historical purposes but rather for some unique findings by his descendants.

Phillip A. Wright was born May 24, 1822 in Wayne County, Kentucky. He moved to Obion County in 1827 with his parents. Phillip was the son of John P. and Rebecca Brown Wright, both of whom are buried on Old Mills' Place, Mt. Moriah Cemetery, near the Glass community in Obion County. John Wright and his family along with other pioneer families from Wayne County, Kentucky floated down the Cumberland, Ohio and Mississippi Rivers to reach Tennessee. This was a six weeks trip and one boat was lost. Having reached Tennessee after their grueling trip, the family settled near the Glass community. All of this was wilderness land and could be purchased for 25 cents an acre.

Phillip Wright married Elizabeth E. Lane on August 14, 1843. Phillip and Elizabeth were the parents of 6 children, one of whom was George P. Wright, the great grandfather of Mrs. Betty Wright Wells. Mrs. Wells' research has uncovered quite a lot of information pertaining to Phillip Wright.

A Page In Time has received copies from Mrs. Wells of the membership list of Western Sun Lodge No. 88 of Troy, Tennessee. These lists are for the years 1852 and 1857. Phillip A. Wright is listed as being a member of this lodge for these years. Also listed in these membership lists is Mr. John Cloar. John Cloar was the father of Mr. J. E. Cloar whom we featured in one of our articles last month. At a later date the Palestine Lodge No. 296 was formed and records show Phillip A. Wright serving as treasurer of this lodge. The Glass community was once known as the Palestine Community.

From all accounts it appears that Mr. Wright was very active in his community. In the middle 1800's a Church of Christ was established and Mr. Wright's name appears as one of it's earliest members. The Obion County Court minutes of July, 1850 show Phillip Wright and Samuel Simpson as two of the five men selected to mark a road from Eber Jenn's mill on Mill Creek and intersecting the road from Troy to Sharp's Ferry. In the August court of that same year he was named overseer of this project with family members A. Wall, W. Simpson, Wilson Wright and Mans Burton being some of the road hands.

Mr. Foster has given A Page In Time a copy of the newspaper clipping of the obituary of Phillip A. Wright. This clipping was pasted in the family Bible of his son, Solomon P. Wright. It was discovered by Phillips grandson.

In Memory Of Grandfather

On the morning of the third day of April at Three o'clock, Mr. P. A. Wright was called from this earth to his heavenly home. He had been a sufferer for many years but had borne his troubles patiently; he was never heard to complain of his suffering.

He was a member of the Christian church at Glass for fifty three years, in which he remained faithful in the discharge of Christian duties. As he grew closer he became more zealous. He was indeed a noble father, and the unanimous testimony of all his acquaintances was, "he was a friend of all."

He leaves behind to mourn his loss five children, one in Hatton Washington,; one in Walla Walla, one at Poplar Bluff, Mo., and two here, a number of grand and great grand children.

He left an example worthy of imitation. He possessed an extraordinary strong mind. Though his body was weak and frail, his heart was sufficiently large.

Philip A. Wright was born May 24, 1822 in Wayne county, Ky., moving to Tennessee with his parents in 1827. He had been married three times and was the father of twelve children. He had thirty-four grand children, twenty-one of whom are living, and twelve great grand children. Mr. Wright had been a member of the Masonic fraternity since 1851.

While our hearts are bleeding and torn, while drinking the cup has made us cry out in the deepest agony the realization is slowly dawning upon us that God can bring good out of this for us and that "earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal." While our grandpa is in heaven our minds may tenderly be wooed away from vain things of this earth and fixed upon Jesus and love.

Soon the grass will be growing green on his grave, the birds will sing their sweet songs over his last resting place. People may come and some may go, some smiling and some weeping; the world will move on as before, but in the hearts of the pure and noble his memory will ever be fresh and will serve as a blessed inspiration to lift their weary spirits heavenward where, in the midst of earth's shadows and sorrows the influence of such a life will not and cannot die in a day.

Farewell, Grandpa, for a little while
We did all we could do;
You can't come to us,
But we can go to you.

A chair is vacant in the home,
A pleasant voice is still
A little mount lonely rests
On yonder's graveyard hill.

Cheer up, father, if you can,
Clear off the tears from your eyes,
Grandpa is sweetly resting now
Where there are no sobs or sighs.

Cheer up, uncles and aunts,
Strive to be good and true;
The same spirit that called him,
Will some day call for you.

We'll sigh o'er the vacant chair, I know
Those clothes which hang upon the wall
But let's be robed and ready,
To go at the Savior's call.

Grandpa is at home now,
Free from earth's toils and care,
Looking for us to come on, too,
Where there are no vacant chairs.

He suffered so long on earth,
His pains caused many frowns,
Earth's loss is heaven's gain,
And now he wears his crown.

So farewell grandpa for a little while,
These be to you the last words spoken.
We'll meet you in that home above,
Where family ties are never broken.

Funeral services were conducted at the residence by Brother Mills and Brown, Campbell and Gertrude.

The above poem was a part of the obituary column. The author is unknown."

"Back to the Old Home - Jesse Wright, Pioneer, Respected Former Resident

The death of "Uncle" Jesse Wright, who was known universally amoung earlier settlers here, and was mentioned briefly in the Tuesday Times, occurred at Talala, Indian Territory, last Monday, being due to pneumonia. The remains arrived here yesterday, being met at the depot by the Masonic fraternity, and by the way he was a very honored member thereof and has the remarkable record of having been a member for fifty-two years. The funeral services will be conducted today at Evergreen cemetery, 12 miles southwest of Alliance, by Rev. Joseph Westley, and the remains laid to rest near the spot which for fifteen years was his home. The body was accompanied the long journey by his son-in-law, H. H. Goodwin, formerly of this county. Moses Wright, also a former Box Butter, who has been located at Wood River, Nebr., for the past year, reached here Wednesday to attend the last rites. Besides these two relatives, the deceased leaves the intirm companion of his life joys and sorrows who was unable to make the long journey from the south; Valentine Wright, well known resident here; a daughter in Gait, Calif., Mrs. Carl Weitz, formerly of Alliance; one daughter residing in Oregon; three daughters in the south and a third son, George.

Jesse Wright departed this life at the age of a little over eight-one years, being born in Wayne county, Kentucky. He came to Box Butte county to reside in the year 1885 with the earliest settlers, and prior to that time had made his home in Council Bluffs, Iowa for about twenty-five years. Five years ago he left Box Butte county to make his home in the south, and with the exception of a visit here, remained there until the time of his death. Mr. Wright during his residence here was known to almost every resident and was universally respected. The sorrowing ones may rest assured that this sorrow is shared by every acquaintance and friend of Jesse Wright and the excellant families here that bear his name."

In her email dated December 24, 2006, Mary Celine Scott stated that on March 5, 1908, the Pioneer Grip, Alliance, Nebraska, published an announcement regarding the burial of Jesse Wright:

"The Pioneer Grip, Alliance, NE, March 5, 1905:
Uncle Jesse Wright Dead

One by one the old pioneers drop off. The latest is Uncle Jesse Wright who died in Oklahoma. The remains arrived in Alliance, Thursday and will be buried at Carpenter Postoffice today. In the early days of settlement of the county there was not a more prominent figure in the county than Uncle Jesse. No public meeting was ever complete without his presence. He was a good citizen and many friends will read of his death with sorrow. His remains were brought to Alliance by H. H. Goodwin. Moses Wright came up from Grand Island."

In her email dated November 25, 2006, Sherri Fry stated that on February 25, 1908, the Alliance, Nebraska, Semi-Weekly published the obituary of Rhoda Jane (McCoin) Wright:

> "Brought Back For Burial - Last Wish of Pioneer Woman to Lie Near Old Home Place Beside Husband:
> "H. H. Goodwin of Joplin, Mo., and Vol Wright of Downs, Kansas arrived in Alliance Saturday, bringing the remains of Mrs. Jesse Wright. The end of this life came for her at the home of the former at Willow Springs, MO last Tuesday, being due to pneumonia and old age. The men were much handicapped by the weather in getting here. Mr. Wright being unable to reach his mother's bedside, finding two systems of railroad snowbound and after several days he was only able to get to Denver and from there here. He had but arrived home from his recent visit here, when he received word of her illness, but the railroads to Kansas City and the east were out of commission.
> Rhoda Jane Wright was the widow of "Uncle" Jesse Wright, who settled in this section of the country sometime in the year 1885, and about three years ago was brought here for burial and laid in Evergreen cemetery at Carpenter Church, near the old home place. Her maiden name was McCoin and she was born the 4th day of May, 1833, in Wayne county, Kentucky, thus being nearly seventy-five years of age. She was married to Jesse Wright May, 1851 and they came from Council Bluffs, Iowa to what is now Box Butte County, with the earliest pioneers, settling in the Snake Creek valley, a few miles west of where Alliance now stands. Seven children survive the mother, while four have found the last sleep. There are three boys and four girls living, namely: Moses Wright of Alliance; George W. Wright of Clinton, OK; Vol Wright of Downs, KS; Mrs. Carl Weitz of Galt, Calif; Mrs. Holloway of Florida; Mrs. Skelton of Clinton, OK; Mrs. H.H. Goodwin of Willow Springs,MO. Most of these have resided here at some time in the past and are known to the oldtime people. The deceased had been a member of the Christian Church more than fifty years, and Mr. and Mrs. Wright were highly respected by those who knew them. About two years ago she wrote directions for her interment, and these same last wishes were again expressed on her deathbed. It was her request that the services be at the old place, she laid beside her life partner, that Rev. Joseph Westley (one of the old neighbors) conduct the service, reading the eighth chapter of Romans and that those good old songs, "Nearer My God to Thee," and "Jesus Lover of My Soul." be used at the funeral. All these instructions were faithfully carried out. Many old friends will join the Times in sympathy for the sorrowing and add their requim for her faithful rest."

"Obituary - Alliance Times (Alliance, NE) - Tues. 9 Dec1930:

Mr. Wright was born at Ottumwa, IA on March 9, 1860 and died at his home in Downs, KS on December 4, 1930 at the age of 70 years, 6 months and 24 days.

They resided here during the great range war between the cattle and sheep ranchers. The family resided in Nebraska for 20 years and went to Downs in 1907, first locating on a farm eight miles south of the city.

> Although the Times has previously mentioned the death of Mrs. Vol Wright, which occurred at Downs, KS on the 14th last, some items appearing in the paper of that city in connection with a report of Mrs. Wright's demise will prove of interest to deceased's many friends and acquaintances in this vicinity. The Down's News says: "Her death is peculiarly a bad one, and is mourned by all who were so fortunate as to be acquainted with the noble woman who has passed away. The family has been sorely afflicted for the past three or four months, being compelled to go through a siege of both smallpox and measles, during which time practically the entire family suffered with the two maladies and the worry and constant strain of the long period of sickness sapped the strength of Mrs. Wright to the extent that when she was taken down with the measles her system was in no condition to battle with the disease, with the result that pneumonia developed, with other complications, which made the fight a hard one from the start, and finally brought about her death. She was a woman of great nobility of character, kind and loving in her home life with husband and children and a neighbor whom to know was a privilege to those about her. Her place in the home, the church and the community will be hard to fill, and her memory will long be cherished in the hearts of those who knew and loved her best."

b. 1833 John E. Wright Of Lincoln County, Kentucky, His Probable Wife Nancy (Brown) Wright, And His Descendants

1833 John E. Wright of Lincoln County, Kentucky, was a son of Morris or Maurice Wright and Mary (Lawless) Wright. (1767 Francis[1], 1807 Isaac[2], Morris or Maurice[3])

Lincoln County, Kentucky, Marriage Indexes listed the marriage of John E. Wright and Nancy Brown on March 17, 1829, at Lincoln County, Kentucky. This marriage record is consistent with the birth of a child in about 1831 and, therefore, was probably the marriage of John E. Wright, the son of Morris or Maurice Wright.

In her email dated March 13, 20088, Michelle Metty stated that the Tax Lists for Lincoln County, Kentucky, listed a James Wright with 67 acres of land on Green River and a John Wright, son of James Wright, from 1815 through 1826 and then John

Wright with that acreage from 1827 through 1831 and also listed John E. Wright with 66-2/3 and later more acres of land on Hanging Fork from 1820 through1849. Neither of these John Wrights would be John E. Wright, Jr., the son of Morris or Maurice Wright, who would have been too young to be listed in the early 1820's. Michelle Metty also stated that in 1826 the Tax Lists included a third John Wright, listed in 1826 as John E. Wright, Jr., in 1827 as John Wright, in 1829 and 1830 as John E. Wright, Jr.. This seems clearly a listing for John E. Wright, Jr., the son of Morris or Maurice Wright.

The 1830 Census for Lincoln County, Virginia, listed John E. Wright, Jr., with the following household:

Names Heads of Families	Free White Males	Age	Free White Females	Age
John E. Wright, Jr.	1	20-30	1	20-30

Slaves Male	Age	Slaves Female	Age	Free Colored Males	Age	Free Colored Females	Age

Slaves and Colored Persons, included in the foregoing
Deaf & Dumb under 14	Deaf & Dumb 14 to 25	Deaf & Dumb 25+	Blind

This record indicates that John E. Wright, Jr., and his wife were born between 1800 and 1810.

Wright with that acreage from 1827 through 1831 and also listed John E. Wright with 66-2/3 and later more acres of land on Hanging Fork from 1820 through1849. Neither of these John Wrights would be John E. Wright, Jr., the son of Morris or Maurice Wright, who would have been too young to be listed in the early 1820's. Michelle Metty also stated that in 1826 the Tax Lists included a third John Wright, listed in 1826 as John E. Wright, Jr., in 1827 as John Wright, in 1829 and 1830 as John E. Wright, Jr.. This seems clearly a listing for John E. Wright, Jr., the son of Morris or Maurice Wright.

The 1830 Census for Lincoln County, Virginia, listed John E. Wright, Jr., with the following household:

Names Heads of Families	Free White Males	Age	Free White Females	Age
John E. Wright, Jr.	1	20-30	1	20-30

Slaves and Colored Persons, included in the foregoing
Deaf & Dumb under 14	Deaf & Dumb 14 to 25	Deaf & Dumb 25+	Blind

This record indicates that John E. Wright, Jr., and his wife were born between 1800 and 1810.

In her email dated March 13, 2008, Michelle Metty stated that the 1831 Tax List for Lincoln County, Kentucky, listed three John Wrights, one of whom was John Wright, the son of James Wright, the second of whom was John E. Wright, Sr., and the third of whom was listed as John E. Wright and that this John E. Wright, Jr., was not thereafter listed in the Lincoln County Tax Lists, which is consistent with his death before 1834 set forth below.

On April 2, 1832, at Lincoln County, Kentucky, Estate Papers, Box 31, John E. Wright executed a promissory note to G. Gulian for $5:

> "on or Before the first day of August next I promist to pay G Gulian five Dollars for value Recd of him this the 2th of April 1832

In February 1833 at Lincoln County, Kentucky, Estate Papers, Box 31, the court appointed appraisers for the estate of John E. Wright:

This record indicates that John E. Wright had died in about February 1833.

On April 17, 1833, at Lincoln County, Kentucky, Estate Papers, Box 31, the inventory and appraisement of the estate of John E. Wright, Jr., was filed:

c. Possibly Ellis Wright

Ellis Wright was possibly a son of Morris or Maurice Wright and Mary (Lawless) Wright. (1767 Francis[1], 1807 Isaac[2], Morris[3])

There is no direct evidence that Ellis Wright was a son of Morris or Maurice Wright and Mary (Lawless) Wright and only a limited amount of circumstantial evidence.

The 1820 Census for Lincoln County, Kentucky listed the Maurice Wright household with one male aged 16 to 26, who would have been John E. Wright, and with one male aged 0 to 10, indicating a second son in the family born between 1810 and 1820.

In her email dated March 13, 2008, Michelle Metty stated that the Tax Lists for Lincoln County, Kentucky, listed Ellis Wright as follows:

1829 Ellis Wright, Jr.

1830 Ellis Wright, Jr.

Ellis Wright 129 acres Hanging Fork

The second Ellis Wright listing was for Ellis Wright, the son of 1807 Isaac Wright of Amherst County, who had been listed in the Lincoln County Tax Lists since 1813. The Tax Lists continued as follows:

1831 Ellis Wright

Ellis Wright 129 acres Hanging Fork

1833 Ellis Wright Sr 129 acres Lincoln County Hanging Fork

Ellis Wright, Jr.

1835 Ellis Wright Sr 129 acres Lincoln County Hanging Fork

Ellis Wright, Jr.

1838 Ellis Wright

Ellis Wright

Ellis Wright, Sr., moved to Wayne County, Kentucky, in about 1838 and thereafter only one Ellis Wright was listed in the Lincoln County Tax Lists as follows:

1840 Ellis Wright

1841 Ellis Wright

1848 Ellis Wright

1849 Ellis Wright

In her email dated March 13, 2008, Michelle Metty also stated that Ellis Wright acted as a witness to the pension application of Nancy Ellis (Wright) Hodges dated September 6, 1879, in Johnson County, Missouri, and stated that he was 62 years of age, which would indicated a date of birth in about 1817, consistent with the youngest male in the 1820 Census for Maurice Wright.

The presence of a second son in the Morris or Maurice Wright household in 1820, the appearance of an Ellis Wright, Jr., in the Lincoln County, Kentucky, Tax Lists, the association of an Ellis Wright with Nancy Ellis (Wright) Hodges through her pension application of an age appropriate to be the second son from the census record indicate that Ellis Wright may have been the second son of Morris or Maurice Wright and Mary (Lawless) Wright, but further research will be required to confirm this identification.

The 1870 Census for Lincoln County, Kentucky, listed Ellis Wright with the following household on July 12, 1870:

Name	Age	Sex	Color	Occupation	Value of Real Estate
Ellis Wright	60	M	W	Carpenter	700

Value of Personal Property	Place of Birth	Married Within Year	Born Within Year	Attended School Within Year	Cannot Read
100	Kentucky

Cannot Write	Deaf Dumb Blind Insane or Idiot	Male Citizen Over 21	Male Citizen Over 21 Without Right to Vote

The age listed may have been originally written as 50 and then corrected to 60. If the age of 50 is the correct reading, this record indicates that Elis Wright was born in about 1820, which would be consistent with being the second son of 1839 Isaac Wright of Lincoln County, Kentucky, discussed more fully below. If the age of 60 is the correct reading, this record indicates that Ellis Wright was born in about 1810, which would be consistent with being the second son of Morris or Maurice Wright in the 1820 Census.

The 1880 Census for Lincoln County, Kentucky, listed Ellis Wright in the Richard Wright household on June 21, 1880:

Name	Color	Sex	Age	Month of Birth	Relationship
Richard Wright	W	M	38
Paralee Wright	W	F	34		Wife
George Wright	W	M	14		Son
Harrison Wright	W	M	10		Son

Howard Wright	W	M	4		Son
Ellis Wright	W	M	60		Cousin

The age listed may have been originally written as 50 and then corrected to 60. If the age of 50 is the correct reading, this record indicates that Elis Wright was born in about 1820, which would be consistent with being the second son of 1839 Isaac Wright of Lincoln County, Kentucky. If the age of 60 is the correct reading, this record indicates that Ellis Wright was born in about 1810, which would be consistent with being the second son of Morris or Maurice Wright in the 1820 Census, discussed more fully above.

He made several trips and lived in Wayne for 3 years during 1824, 25 and 26, returning again to Lincoln County.

In 1837, Ellis, his wife and children settled permanently on a 500 acre tract of land on Fall Creek where he remained the balance of his life. Ellis died there the 30th of September 1860 and is buried in the Wright Cemetery off Spann Hill Road. His Will is recorded in Wayne in Will Book A:159-160. Ellis was a large land owner with many slaves.

Ellis married probably in the Lincoln County area to Ann J. ____. She was born 6 July 1790 in Kentucky and died 2 December 1868 in Wayne where her Will is also recorded in Book A:194. It was written just one year before she died and in it she says that she is in a "low and feeble state". She was 77 years old.

Ellis and Anna named the following children in their Wills. There may have been others:

Nancy Ann Wright was born in 1831 in Lincoln County; married 1854 at her fathers house in Wayne to the widower, Fleming Bates, son of Thomas Bates and Patience Tuttle. Fleming had three children by his first wife, Margaret Miller Emerson who died in 1853. Nannie Wright Bates raised these three stepchildren, plus she had 4 of her own: Ellis Wright Bates, Anna M. Bates, Nancy A. Bates and Joseph Bates.

Evan Ellis Wright was born in 1833 and married Nancy Emily Jones, born 1836 and died 1908. Ellis was still living in 1867.

Joseph E. Wright was born 1835 and probably still living in 1880, when Isham Burnett wrote a letter to Thomas Dodson[1], asking "where is Joseph E. Wright living now and is Miss Sarah Ragon living with him?". Joseph's mother leaves him out of her Will, possibly because he has already received his share.

Joshua Wright.

Sophia Wright married Mr. West and had two daughters, Melissa and Mary Jane West, born before 1860, when Sophia's father wrote his Will.

Winnefred Wright married Mr. Broyles.

Burdit Wright

[1] Letter from Isham Burnett to Thomas Dodson in 1880 (Vol 1:257)."

1) Burditt Wright,

2) Joshua Wright, born on November 1, 1815, in Kentucky,

The 1820 Census for Lincoln County, Kentucky, listed Ellis Wright with two sons aged 0 to 10 years and two daughters aged 0 to 10 years. As will be set forth below, Joshua Wright was born on November 1, 1815, and would have been one of the two sons listed in this record.

The 1830 Census for Lincoln County, Kentucky, listed Ellis Wright with two sons aged 10 to 15 years and one daughter aged 10 to 15 years.

This record indicates that Joshua Wright was born in about 1815 and that Mary (Sweeney) Wright was born in about 1818. However, the marriage record of Joshua/Jehua Wright and Lucretia Chrissom indicates that Mary (Sweeney) Wright had died prior to 1853. In her email dated September 1, 2008, Diane Parrish stated that the gravestone of Cornelia F. Wright in the Wright Cemetery, Randolph County, Missouri, listed her as the daughter of J. and L. S. Wright and born on December 24, 1874. In her email dated September 1, 2008, Diane Parrish also enclosed a copy of the death record of Joella (Wright) White which listed her parents as Joshua Wright and Lucretia (Chism) Wright and her birth on December 3, 1855. Apparently, either the informant inadvertently told the 1860 census taker that Joshua Wright's wife was Mary or the census taker mistakenly listed Lucretia's name as Mary.

The will of Ellis Wright dated on June 7, 1860, and probated on October 20, 1860, at Wayne County, Kentucky, W.B. A/159, listed Joshua Wright as one of his children:

> "I, Ellis Wright of the county of Wayne and state of Ky. do hereby make and publish this as my last will and Testament, revokeing and annulling all other and former Wills made by me.

The 1870 Census for Randolph County, Missouri, listed Joshua Wright with the following household on August 23, 1870:

This record indicates that Joshua Wright was born in about 1816 and that Lucretia (Chrissom or Chism) Wright was born in about 1824.

In her letter dated September 1, 2008, Diane Parrish enclosed a report of the gravestones in the Wright Cemetery, Randolph County, Missouri, which included the following:

> "Joshua Wright
> Masonic Emblem
> d. 24 May 1876
> 60y 7m 24d"

This record indicates that Joshua Wright was born on November 1, 1815.

In her email dated August 7, 2008, Diane Parrish enclosed a family report which stated that the obituary of Joshua Wright was dated on June 1, 1876, in the Moberly Daily Enterprise-Monitor:

> "Joshua Wright, a respected citizen of this county, died on the 24th ult., in the 60th year of his age. He resided six miles northwest of Sturgeon."

Wayne County, Kentucky, Volume 6, "Wills & the Dick Family & Other Families" by June Bork stated that Joshua Wright was a son of 1860 Ellis Wright of Wayne County, Kentucky, and Ann J. (____) Wright.

In her email dated April 29, 1998, Mary Celine Scott enclosed a family chart which stated that Joshua Wright was a son of Ellis Wright and Ann (Jones) Wright and was born in about 1837 in Kentucky, but that this information was from an unverified secondary source.

In her email dated September 1, 2008, Diane Parrish stated that the connection of 1876 Joshua Wright of Randolph County, Missouri, to Lincoln County, Kentucky, was based on a number of factors:

1) Based on the research of Judge Daniel Sweeney, the Sweeney family came from Amherst County, Virginia, as did the Wright family, where both families probably knew each other,

2) The Sweeney family migrated first to Lincoln County, Kentucky, and then to Washington County, Kentucky,

3) Although the marriage of Joshua Wright and Mary Sweeney occurred in Washington County, Kentucky, no record that would identify the parents of Joshua Wright has been found in Washington County, Kentucky,

4) The names Francis Wright and Morris Wright are common to the Wright families of Lincoln County and appear in the later generations of the family of 1876 Joshua Wright.

In addition, the date of birth of Joshua Wright fits appropriately among the children of 1860 Ellis Wright as listed in the 1820 Census, the 1850 and 1860 and 1870 Censuses all list Joshua Wright as born in Kentucky, and Joshua Wright is named as a son in 1860 Ellis Wright's will.

The conclusion seems fair that 1876 Joshua Wright of Randolph County, Missouri, was the son of 1860 Ellis Wright of Lincoln County, Kentucky.

In her email dated August 7, 2008, Diane Parrish enclosed a family report which stated that Joshua Wright was born on November 1, 1815, in Lincoln County, Kentucky, married first Mary Sweeney on December 30, 1835, in Washington County, Kentucky, resided in 1840 in Boone County, Missouri, resided in 1850 in Randolph County, Missouri, married second Lucretia Chrissom or Chism on June 14, 1853, in Randolph County, Missouri, resided in 1860 and 1870 in Randolph County, Missouri, died on May 24, 1876, in Clark, Randolph County, Missouri, and was buried in the Wright Cemetery, Sturgeon, Randolph County, Missouri, that Mary (Sweeney) Wright was born in about 1818, and that Joshua Wright and Mary (Sweeney) Wright had the following children:

1) Zephaniah Wright, born on January 29, 1838, in either Illinois or Missouri while his parents were en route to Missouri,

2) Jefferson Wright, born in about 1839 in Missouri,

3) Alexander Milton Wright, born in about 1841 in Missouri,

4) Sarah Wright, born in about 1844 in Missouri,

5) Thomas Wright, born in about 1846 in Missouri,

6) Clarissa Wright, born in about 1848 in Randolph County, Missouri, and

7) Therisa Wright, born in about 1849 in Randolph County, Missouri, and that Joshua Wright and Lucretian (Chrissom or Chism) Wright had the following children:

1) Cornelia Wright, born on December 24, 1854, in Randolph County, Missouri, and

2) Joella (Wright) White, born on December 3, 1855, in Randolph County, Missouri.

i. 1907 Zephaniah W. Wright Of Randolph County, Missouri, His Wife Elizabeth (Sims) Wright, And His Descendants

1907 Zephaniah W. Wright of Randolph County, Missouri, was a son of Joshua Wright and Mary (Sweeney) Wright. (1767 Francis[1], 1807 Isaac[2], 1860 Ellis[3], 1876 Joshua[4])

The 1850 Census for Randolph County, Missouri, listed Zepheniah Wright in the Jos. Wright household on October 19, 1850, and his age as 13 and born in Illinois, indicating a date of birth in about 1837.

In her email dated December 24, 2008, Diane Parrish enclosed a copy of an accounting by Joshua Wright recorded on November 24, 1856, at Randolph County, Missouri, Probate Records C3/192 which listed Zephaniah W. Wright as a child and heir of Mary Wright, deceased:

"Zephaniah Wright

Mr. W. was born January 29, 1837, while his parents, Joshua Wright and Mary Swene, were on the road between Illinois and Missouri. They came first from Kentucky in 1836, and lived in Illinois only one year. On arriving at their destination they settled in Boone county, but after a four years' stay moved to Randolph. Here Zephaniah Wright grew to manhood, and shared the advantages in schooling common to the neighborhood. In 1861, on account of the disturbed state of the county, consequent upon the eruption of the Civil War, Mr. W., with that discretion which is the better part of valor,

"Folded his tents like the Arabs,
And silently stole away"

Kansas received him into her bosom for the next five years, and in the spring of 1866 he returned to Randolph. He bought one place and lived upon it two years, then sold it and bought land not far distant, where he now resides. He has a farm of 347 acres, all fenced and in pasture and cultivation. Upon this there is a good comfortable house with out-buildings, etc.; also a thrifty young orchard. Mr. W. possesses besides, 160 acres of land, all fenced and in meadow pasture, and he owns still another tract of 120 acres, partially improved and containing a small house. He feeds on an average 150 head of cattle yearly, and about the same number of hogs, sometimes shipping, sometimes selling at home to other shippers, and to a limited extent, buying for shipping purposes. Mr. Wright is of shrewd and acute perceptive faculties, and with keen sagacity he guides his craft safely through the inevitable snags and shoals that but too often prove fatal to other voyagers. He showed the same wisdom in selecting a wife as in the conduct of his business affairs, when he married, March 31, 1861, Miss Elizabeth, daughter of Henderson Sims, formerly of Virginia. Mrs. Wright herself was born and raised in Boone county. There are five children: Lincoln, Joshua H., Lizzie, William M. and Mary E. Two died at tender ages."

West had children by a prior marriage.

The will of Ellis Wright dated on June 7, 1860, and probated on October 20, 1860, at Wayne County, Kentucky, W.B. A/159, listed Sopha West as one of his children:

A letter, November 25, 1941, Anna Clay Wright to her son, John W. Riley:

'I don't remember very much about the life of my grandfather Bennet Crawford Wright. He was born near Richmond or Cowpens, Virginia. Did I ever tell you who he was named after? An older brother and a neighbor boy went to the spring to get water. Indians were hidden nearby and they caught them and scalped them. That was just a little before Grandpa was born. I don't know how old he was when he went to Kentucky, or how long he stayed in Kentucky. He did not bring any darkies that I know of; the darkies they brought were the property of my mother, Nancy Sloan Owens: they were Aunt Winnie, Amos, George and Lewis. My mother (Sarah Jane Owens Wright) got Nan and Caroline, while Uncle Jim (Reuben James Owens) and Aunt Nerve (Minerva Owens Maggard) got money. Grandpa used to tell me about when he was a schoolmaster. He said that he used to wear a big flowered robe and sat in a rocking chair while he heard them recite. One time he rocked on a big boy's toe and mashed the nail off. The boy was seventeen years old and was going barefoot.'

Nancy Sloan lived near Monticello, Kentucky, when she m. William Owens.

William was born and died in Wayne County, Kentucky. Owensboro is said to have been named after this Owens family.

The identification of a second Bennett Wright who served in the War of 1812 from South Carolina raises the possibility that Bennett Wright, the son of 1807 Isaac Wright of Amherst County, was not 1876 Bennett Crawford Wright of Randolph County, Missouri, but was the Bennett Wright who resided in Union District, South Carolina. The argument for this latter identification is that other descendants of 1767 Francis Wright of Amherst County moved to Union District, South Carolina. However, the statements in A Memorandum Of The Ellis Family that Bennett Wright, the son of 1807 Isaac Wright of Amherst County, emigrated to Kentucky and married a Miss Givens seem to clearly identify 1876 Bennett Crawford Wright as the son of 1807 Isaac Wright. The Bennett Wright of Union District, South Carolina, may have been a child of one of the other members of this family who moved to Union District, South Carolina.

In his letters dated September 9 and 26, 1994, Donald W. Wright enclosed family group sheets which stated that Bennett Crawford Wright was born in November 1785 in Richmond, Virginia, moved to Lincoln County, Kentucky, married first Rebecca B. Petty Of England & Virginia also included the following letter from Mrs. Darrel Schwenk, College Mound, Missouri, to Gerald Petty dated January 27, 1970:

"I must tell you about my Uncle Stirling Coulter - pronounced "Starlin" by his Missouri relatives. He belonged to my mother's family. I didn't see any of them often until much later. You see, my fathers mother, Grandma Petty, who took complete charge of me after mother's death, did not approve of his marriage. After all, she had not selected this mate for him - a girl who had not spent two years at Hardin College, as her daughters had. Never! So it was some time before my Aunt Myra, my mother's sister, took me for a visit with her and her parents, regardless of the wordless but apparent disapproval of Grandma Petty and Aunt Rosa, her unmarried daughter. They didn't even go to the gate with me when Aunt Myra called for me. Aunt Myra loved me, not so much for myself as for my mother who was next in age to her - they were chums. She had been the first to know of my mother's engagement. I enjoyed those visits. The pattern of living was so different from that of my adopted home - much less austere.

My father did not share the unfriendly feeling for his in-lwas and he sometimes took me to visit my mother's people for a day or a call. Their farm was only seven miles away.

I remember very well when he took me to see Uncle Stirling. He was not my real uncle; he was a cousin of my Grandfather Wright. He was a member of one of the families who joined the mass migration into Northeast Missouri in the early 1820's: Wrights, Owens, Smiths. At the time I saw him, he was ninety-four, partially blind, and he spent his days sitting in a rocking chair, cared for by his two daughters. He had a long white beard and looked much as I pictured Old Testament patriarchs.

My father said, "Uncle Stirling, I have brought Ella's little girl to see you. You remember Ella, of course. And I think you know that we lost her last year."

"Oh, yes," Uncle Stirling said, "she was the gayest of the Wright girls - always laughing and she could manage a horse so well. I used to love to see her ride."

I have proof of her horsemanship - a silver goblet awarded to "Miss Ella Wright, best lady rider." The award was made in her teens, but unfortunately, the date was not included in the inscription. The horse show was at the famous Jacksonville, Missouri, fair. In fact, it was at the Fair that my parents met. My father loved horses, too, and always had one to show. His sisters were too prim to think of riding a horse! After all, hadn't they spent two years at Hardin College - and at that time the curriculum did not include horsemanship.

Uncle Stirling looked at me with dim eyes that apparently saw more than one would suspect.

"Come here, honey," he said, putting a feeble arm around my shoulders. "You are a nice little girl, but you ain't as pretty as your ma was, but then she wasn't as pretty nor as gay as her ma was. What is the world coming to?" He chuckled at his joke.

I was glad that I had a pony and could ride and I told him so. His dim view of my beauty did not bother me at age eight. My chief pleasure was climbing trees, romping with the dog, or riding my pony - astride to my grandmother's shocked primness. She and Aunt Rosa deplored my rowdy play and my freckles and reddish hair. I refused to wear the sunbonnet that they made for me. "Just like the Wrights!" they said in disgust. Why couldn't I behave like my cousin Virgil, a few years younger, who was beautiful - no freckles, long curls, and Lord Fontleroy-like clothes. A model of propriety. Not much fun, though, I thought when he visited us.

But back to Uncle Stirling. My father told me about him on the way to see him:

My great-grandfather had been given land in Kentucky for service in the War of 1812. The soil was thin and the land hilly, making farming quite a problem. When the westward fever came in the 1820's, he and two neighbors, Owens and Smith, joined the movement west to Missouri to look at the land that could be had for a few cents an acre. This particular trek included the Carter cousins.

They by-passed what is now "The Kingdom of Calloway" (Calloway County) and some of the richest soil in the state and chose land that was somewhat rolling and with soil not much richer than what they had left in Kentucky. This is understandable, for they did not have plows strong enough to break the thick sod nor equipment for digging wells. The land they chose had springs bubbling out of the hillside; but it was slightly better than what they had left.

They claimed their chosen land by whatever means was required at the time; and in order to doubly protect their choice, decided to leave one person to represent their rights while the rest of them went back to Kentucky to harvest the crops and prepare to make the move West.

Obviously, the fathers of families could not be spared, neither could any one who could do a man's work. So they decided that Stirling, then fourteen, would stay behind. To prepare a place for him, they built a log and sod cabin in the side of a hill, near a spring, complete with a stone-and-mud fireplace. They left an axe to cut firewood, a gun with powder and bullets, flour, and coffee. If he had meat, he would have to hunt for it - turkeys, rabbits, whatever he could find.

My father said he heard nothing of the misgivings of Uncle Stirling's parents at leaving him alone - for it would be five months before they could return. There could be hunger, illness, lonesomeness, perhaps unfriendly passers-by. They must have thought of all these possibilities, even though Uncle Stirling must have been quite mature at fourteen - must have proved his ability to care for himself.

He survived the winter very well - no illness, very few passers-by, and those friendly - he made out very well. True, his supplies were scarce when the three families returned the next spring with whatever wordly goods they could pack in the wagons. It was a happy meeting for all of them.

They purchased the land that Stirling had guarded and lived neighbors all their lives. My great-grandfather was getting along in years when they made this move, but he survived his wife and Abner Owens, his neighbor. So what could have been more natural than for him to marry the Widow Owens.

This was a happy union and it brought into the same family my grandfather, then nineteen, and sixteen-year-old Sarah Owens. They decided to be marred and to make a home of their own. So, the two families were doubly merged.

My Uncle Stirling went back to Kentucky for his bride, but returned to Missouri to bring up his family. They had to work hard to scrape a living; but they lived very well and so became among the first of the pioneers to settle that part of the state. The third and fourth generations live in near-by towns, but none on the original farm.

inadvertently paid out more to John E. Wright for Wright's interest in his father Isaac Wright's estate than was properly due to him:

"To the Court of Amherst County, In Chancery.

The bill of Complaint of Abraham Carter of the County of Amherst, respectfully represents - That a certain John E. Wright of the state of Kentucky, on the 19th of November 1810, draw an Order on him as administrator with the will annexed of Isaac Wright of said County lately decd. to pay to a certain Henry Brown, his (the said John E. Wright) legacy in the estate of said Testator, being for the price of a Horse sold by the said Henry to the said John, amounting to $80. which your Orator on the 2d of December 1810 fully paid, and took said Browns rect therefore, which said Order and Rect. is herewith exhibited as part of this bill.

Your Orator charges, that at the time he paid said order, he had not settled the account of his administration of said estate, and did suppose at that time, that he would be indebted to said John E. Wright on account of his said Fathers Estate; the amount of said Order - but now so it is may it please the Court, that subsequent to the payment of said $80. your Orators administration accounts of the estate aforesaid has been fully settled by Order of said Court and duly passed and recorded in said Court, as will appear by reference thereto. Whereupon it is now ascertained that your Orator as Adm. aforsaid owed the said John nothing on account of said estate when he paid said Order. The said John previous to that time, having recd. his full portion of said estate and your Orator by said mistake has paid the said sum of $80. out of his own estate whereby the said John E. Wright, now residing in said State of Kentucky, has become justly indebted to him in the said Sum of $80. with legal interest thereon from the said 2d. of Decr. 1810 till paid, that the said John has no estate in this Country known to your Orator and subject to his demand; except a debt due to him from a certain William Carter of this County by Bond to the amount of $__.

In tender consideration whereof of your Orator prays that the said John E. Wright, and William Carter, may be made parties Defendants to this bill, and compelled to answer the same, that the Dft Wright may be Injoined from receiving and the Dft Carter from paying away the Debt by him owing to said absent Dft. as aforesaid; or so much thereof shall be sufficient to satisfy your Orators said demand, and the costs of this suit, until the further order and decree of this Court concerning the same, that the usual process of spa and Injunction, may be awarded to him, and finally that such other and further Order and decree in the premises, may be made, as justice shall require to be done, according to the act of assembly in such case made and provided, may it please the Court &c

Wright & Wm Carter all such damages as shall be sustained by sd Wright in consequence of the restraining order made in the said cause at Octo Ct 1822 as also all such costs as shall be Awarded against said A Carter in case the said injunction shall be dissolved then the above obligation to be void or else to remain in full force and virtue

On November 6, 1822, in Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court, in the case Carter v. Wright, no file number, John E. Wright filed his answer to the complaint and denied that he owed Abraham Carter anything:

"The Separate answer of John E. Wright to the bill of Abraham Carter exhibited against himself and others in the County Court of Amherst on its Chancery side.

This defendant reserving to himself the full benefit of Exceptions in such cases reservd. for answer to the plff bill or to so much thereof as he is advised is material for him to answer Answering says.

He does not admit the compt Carter has any just claims against the Estate of his father for Monies paid as admr. with the will annexed on the contrary this defendant verily believes upon ____ administration he would ____ burden of proof ____

This defendant however submits to the Court, in the event of the Court considering him Concernd to in said account, how far the the Complainant can avail himself of the settlement of his account to them the burden of proof upon this defendant, when he himself is opening it by going into matters precedent to its settlement in order to charge his defendant. Does he not by this forfeit his claim to the right priviledge with which the law in the case of a settled account favours executors and administrators. And will he not be compelld in order to affect the rights of the defendant thereby to establish to the satisfaction of this court the correctness of his account.

If the case were put on that footing this defendant humbly conceives he would be able to satisfy the court there was nothing due said compl. This defendant will not here enumerate his objections to said account. As he conceives it will undergo a revision in the Sup Ct. Chancery for the Lynchburg District in a case now ___ [illegible] this defendant to make a ___ of Brown for his ___ whatever it might turn out to be, (let it have been one cent or a million) and Brown on his part to take it as he found it. The very nature of the contract forbid anything like an idea of responsibility on the part of the deft. This defendant intended none and Brown expected none. As the very face of said order fully shews. This defendant therefore conceives if the Compt made a mistake he must be saddled with it unless his redress against Brown will avail him any thing.

This defendant most positively avers it was the understanding of himself and Brown, that the defendant was to be in no wise responsible that he only traded to Brown the interest named in the order that Brown was to take the Hazard of whether there was much a little due and was to settle with the Compl in his own way And this defendant is advised and verily believes that Brown was induced by Compt. to make the trade.

This defendant was informed by Compt. in the year 1810 previous to the settlement of his account that there was a balance of ___ as apprearing by ___ prays that the ___ This defendant be decreed to pay this ___ costs &c and as in duty bound he will ever pray &c.

On November 8, 1825, at Amherst County, Virginia, Chancery Court in the case of Carter v. Wright, no file number, Jno. Pryor gave his affidavit in the case:

"The affidavit of Jno Pryor taken at the tavern house of James Ware Pedlar Mills November the 8th 1825, to be read as evidence in a certain matter of controversy depending and undetermined, in the county court of Amherst and on the Chancery side of the docket wherein Abram Carter is pltff and John E Wright. William Carter, and others are defendants. Abram Carter, and Jno. E. Wright plff & deft. being present and consenting. This affiant affirmeth and saith That he the affiant was at the house of Henry Brown, at Wincanton Amherst, when the defnt. Jno. E. Wright was there, about the month of December in the Winter of 1810 or there abouts, when the said Henry Brown, traded with Jno. E. Wright the dft. for his legacy, which belonged to him from Isaac Wright decd. est. this affiant believes that the sd. Brown gave to sd. Wright a sorrel mare, and some money, I think about fifteen dollars for his the sd. Wrights interest in said est. whatever sd. Interest might be.

Question By the defendant Jno. E Wright was it not completely understood between sd. Henry Brown & myself that he was to take said interest in my fathers Estate and was not to have any recourse on me whatever & do you not believe that sd. Brown was well acquainted with the situation of sd. Estate

Answer. I do believe that sd. Brown completely understood that he was to take sd. interest without recourse on you hereafter, and I do further believe that sd. Brown well understood the situation of said est. or at least professed so to be; as he was intimately acquainted with Abrams Carter the plff who was Adminr. of sd. Isaac Wright and intimated at the time of the trade that he learned from sd.

Carter, that Jno. E. Wright was entitled to something like forty pounds from sd. est.

Question by same did you not understand about the same time that Abram Carter had offered to trade to me a certain sorrel horse which he generally rode about that time?

Answer, I do not recollect that circumstance.

Question, by the pltff. Abram Carter What relation are you to the defendant Jno. E. Wright and what relation are you to Henry Brown?

Answer. Jno. E. Wright is my maternal uncle and Henry Brown married my aunt by the mothers side who was his first wife.

Question by the same do you know that John E. Wright gave Henry Brown an order on me for his legacy.

Answer. I believe he did but I do not recollect that any sum was mentioned in that order.

Question by the same. Do you know that my administration of that est. was settled or not at that time?

Answer. I do not know positively whether it was or not, but think it was not settled.

Question by the same. Do you or do you now know that the est. above namd. is now settled, and that no legacy was owing to sd. Jno. E. Wright and further that sd. est. was in my debt?

Answer I cannot answer positively to either of those queries, for I was not present at any settlement but from general report, I have understood that sd. est. was settled, and that it was in your debt.

Question by Jno. E. Wright the defendant. Did you consider the order which I gave to sd. Brown, on sd. Carter obligatory on sd. Carter, unless he had assetts of mine in his hands as adminr. of sd. Isaac Wright?

Answer, I did not think sd. Carter, compelled to pay sd. Brown any thing unless he knew he had assets, and more especially as the order I think was indefinite, inasmuch as no sum was specified but only whatever money might be in his hands belonging to you as a legatee of sd. Isaac Wright.

Further this affiant saith not.

This record indicates that John E. Wright was born in about 1787 and that Clarinda (Huston) Wright was born in about 1792. As set forth above, one of their children was Thales Huston Wright, born on April 30, 1830, who married Martha A. Helm. In his email dated August 30, 2005, Jeff Wright noted that the listing of C. H. Wright in this record is probably a mistranscription of T. H. Wright and the Martha Wright of this record would then be the wife of Thales Huston Wright.

In her email dated March 2, 2008, Michelle Metty enclosed a copy of the death record of John E. Wright dated October 18, 1853, at Lincoln County, Kentucky:

"Name of Deceased	John E. Wright
Age	65
Sex	male
Condition	married
Occupation	Farmer

Residence	Lincoln County
Place of Birth	Virginia
Names of Parents or Overseer of Slaves	Nancy & Jno Wright
Place of Death	Lincoln County
Time of Death	Oct 18 1853
Cause of Death	Dyspepsia
Remarks"

The designation of John E. Wright's parents as John and Nancy Wright is inconsistent with the identification of John E. Wright as the son of 1807 Isaac Wright of Amherst County and Susannah (Ellis) Wright. The power of attorney dated April 29, 1819, from Susanna (Ellis) Wright to John E. Wright, the 1820 Census, the Chancery Court Order dated September 19, 1822, the letter dated March 14, 1825, from John E. Wright in Lincoln County, Kentucky, inquiring about the estate of Isaac Wright, the 1830, 1840, and 1850 Censuses taken together seem to identify John E. Wright as the son of 1807 Isaac Wright of Amherst County.

The informant may have inadvertently confused the names of John E. Wright's parents with his brother Bennett Crawford Wright's son John G. Wright and his wife Nancy (Wilson) Wright, although this seems unlikely.

There is another John Wright, son of 1803 John Wright of Cumberland County, Virginia, and Nancy (____) (Wright) Dodson. This John Wright was listed in the 1804 Cumberland County Personal Property Tax List in his mother Nancy Wright's household, indicating he was over 16 years of age and, therefore, was born before 1788, which is consistent with John E. Wright's date of birth. This John Wright also resided in 1808 in Cumberland County, Virginia, when he sold the land inherited from his father to his brother Saymer Wright by Cumberland County Deed 11/21. No further record of this John Wright has been found. However, he was never referred to in any of the records yet found for him as John E. Wright.

On balance, it would appear that the listing of the parents of John E. Wright in his death record was a mistake by the informant, but further research will be required to remove all doubt.

The will of John E. Wright dated August 12, 1851, probated on November 7, 1853, at Lincoln County, Kentucky, Probate Box 88, and provided as follows:

"Kentucky Lincoln County Court, Sct:
